

Leaving in a remote area I only have access to a very limited number of radio stations. Satellite Radio is the only mechanism I have to listen to a wide variety of stations including news, talk, music variety, including old time radio and talk shows. Mountains do not block the satellite signal as they do with broadcast radio. Please preserve this option for us who live a remote and rural areas.